FBC LTD, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Poultry and Egg Situation: May 1943 Egg production during April was 12 percent larger than in April l9h2. Much of the increase went into current consumption, since the net - into storage movement of all eggs and quantities used for drying and hatching were only moderately larger than in April last year. With stored shell eggs limited largely to Government uses, supplies of eggs for civilians next fall and winter will be considerably below current levels though perhaps as large as a year earlier for the Nation as a whole. Price ceilings for eggs are scheduled to increase f to 15 cents per dozen from June to November. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
