Second: The words are conveniently divided into syllables, in the manner employed by the best writers. Third: The proper use of capitals and small letters in writing is indicated by the capitalization of all proper nouns, Fourth: The pronunciation Of each word is shown by a clear and properly accented system Of phonetic spelling, Fifth: The definitions are accurate and reliable, and embrace all recent distinctions and shades of meaning. Sixth: Each word and its derivatives are specially indexed, instead of the derivatives being crowded in with the definitions, an expedient frequently adopted to save space, but with a loss of -clearness and utility. Seventh: The synonyms and antonyms are given in connection with the words themselves, following...
