Reviews

Good electronic book and useful one. It usually does not expense a lot of. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

The 14th Pacific-Asia Conference on Knowledge Discovery and Data Mining was held in Hyderabad, India during June 21-24, 2010; this was the first time the conference was held in India. PAKDD is a major international conference in the areas of data mining (DM) and knowledge discovery in databases (KDD). It provides an international forum for researchers and industry practitioners to share their new ideas, original research results and practical development experiences from all KDD-related areas including data mining, data warehousing, machine learning, databases, statistics, knowledge acquisition and automatic scientific discovery, data visualization, causal induction and knowledge-based systems. PAKDD-2010 received 412 research papers from over 34 countries including: Australia, Austria, Belgium, Canada, China, Cuba, Egypt, Finland, France, Germany, Greece, Hong Kong, India, Iran, Italy, Japan, S. Korea, Malaysia, Mexico, The Netherlands, New Caledonia, New Zealand, San Marino, Singapore, Slovenia, Spain, Switzerland, Taiwan, Thailand, Tunisia, Turkey, UK, USA, and Vietnam. This clearly reflects the truly international stature of the PAKDD conference. After an initial screening of the papers by the Program Committee Chairs, for papers that did not conform to the submission guidelines or that were deemed not worthy of further reviews, 60 papers were rejected with a brief explanation for the decision. The remaining 352 papers were rigorously reviewed by at least three reviewers. The initial results were discussed among the reviewers and finally judged by the Program Committee Chairs. In some cases of conflict additional reviews were sought. As a result of the deliberation process, only 42 papers (10.2%) were accepted as long presentations (25 mins), and an additional 55 papers (13.3%) were accepted as short presentations (15 mins). The total acceptance rate was thus about 23.5% across both categories. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
