

The Distant Whisper (Paperback)

By Kenneth C Cancellara

AUTHORHOUSE, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . In his first novel, Finding Marco, author Ken Cancellara describes how, after years of corporate activity, the novel's protagonist (Mark Gentile) has a personal awakening in realizing that his ambition for material success has overshadowed his need for happiness and a life of ethics and morality. Sun-drenched memories of life as it once was in Gentile's hometown of Acerenza, Italy (which corresponds to the author's birthplace) call him back to reconnect with his roots and with the simple life he had left behind some half a century earlier. In Acerenza, Gentile took the lessons given to him, as a child, by his grandfather and succeeds in finding a balance between material ambition and more reflective ethics. After long reflection Gentile contemplates the possibility of a permanent move to Italy. In his poetic and eloquent sequel The Distant Whisper, the author continues to quell the turbulence in his soul, caused by the continuing struggle between two competing forces: the compulsion of a life driven by raw ambition and the need for a life framed by morality. He takes the reader...
