St Vladimirs Seminary Pr March 1997, 1997. Paper Back. Condition: New. What is apophatic theology? What role do darkness and light play in biblical and patristic theology? Were Greek and Latin theological differences over the procession of the Holy Spirit an example of semantic pedantry or do they reveal a substantial parting of the ways between East and West? What is deification? What does it mean when we say that human beings bear the image of God? Could the Christological decisions of Chalcedon possibly have anything to say about our conception of human nature and individuality? What is catholicity? What is tradition? This collection of essays is controversial, yet not polemical, theological investigation and clarification of the highest order. 232 pp.
