Reviews

This publication will never be straightforward to get going on looking at but really fun to see. This can be for all those who statte that there had not been a worth looking at. You wont really feel monotony at at any moment of your own time (that's what catalogs are for about should you request me).

Not illustrated. 1905 Excerpt: .milk to have 3.5 per cent of fat, but the health officer says that it is impossible to enforce this provision of the law because, as he claims, the climate makes it impossible to produce milk with this percentage of fat. The writer has seen nothing in the South that would lead to the belief that the climate affects the fat content of the milk. In fact, all evidence gained from a number of sources goes to show that milk richer in butter fat is produced in the South, as a rule, than in the North. The peculiar type of cow found around Jacksonville and common to all the Southern pine lands may or may not produce milk of average composition. No evidence on this question is obtainable. Part of the milk sold in the city is bottled and part of it is cooled, but most of the milk is delivered warm twice a day from cans. There is no cream trade, and the cream used for ice cream was said to be shipped from Tennessee. No family cows are kept in the city, owing to the cheapness of pasture so near the city. Jacksonville needs more rigorous inspection, and the dairymen should be compelled to use coolers. The city has a climate which makes a good milk supply very difficult to obtain, but milk as it is now sold could be greatly improved. WINTER HOTEL MILK SUri LY. In connection with the discussion of...
