The School occupies a commodious building, and is designed to afford pupils a thorough preparation for the Freshman Class, and also a complete course of English studies. It is under the immediate supervision of the Faculty, and is subject to the regulations of the College. Admission Into College. Candidates for admission into the Freshman Class must be prepared to sustain an oral examination on English Grammar, Arithmetic, and Geography, Ancient and Modern; on the Latin and Greek Grammars, Latin Reader, Caesar's Commentaries, and Bullions Greek Reader, or other Greek and Latin authors equivalent; and on Algebra, as far as through equations of the first degree. A candidate for advanced standing, whether from another College or not, is examined in the various branches to which the class he proposes to enter has attended. Students who, from want of means, or from other considerations, desire to pursue an irregular course, may do so, with the consent of their parents or guardians. Applicants for admission are...
