

Come to Me: A Song of Songs (Paperback)

By Rachel Elizabeth

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Is it too much to ask to be truly loved? And if one has the courage and audacity to ask, will Providence fulfill the request? Lady Elizabeth Warden s only prayer has been to become the wife of a good and honorable man. But who will marry her and connect themselves with her debt-ridden and dishonorable drunken rake of a brother? When he suddenly announces that he has arranged her marriage to his friend to pay off a debt of honor with her dowry, will she passively go along with her brother s plan to sell her to a man no better than himself? With no other relatives to turn to and no time to make plans, what can she do? Will she find the courage to act? Sir Richard Fitzwilliam, Earl of Matlock, knows he needs to marry again and produce an heir. His beloved daughter, Bethany Anne, also needs a mother. But after the misery of his short marriage to Anne de Bourgh, he is determined to marry only the right woman. Pursued relentlessly for his title and wealth, how...
