Jan. water dripping over the side out of the broken lips of four quaint old lions. Two or three steps led up to this fountain, and on and about these a group of peasants was assembled; some sat, some leant over the edge; all were talking and gesticulating, and a look of gaiety animated the whole scene. It was, I remembered, afesta. In one corner of the piazza sat an old woman selling medallions, images, rosaries, c.;and now and then her shrill voice echoed through the crowd, Buy, Jmy, Signori; for the love of heaven! Suddenly a side-door of the church, probably that of the sacristy, opened, and a loud, deep voice called out, Ola, Carola, come here! A tidy-looking woman left her doorway and hurried across to the church she appeared to say something which I could not hear; then the former voice exclaimed, Certainly, certainly. The door was thrown open, and the village priest came forth and advanced towards me. The Curato of San...
