Henery Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 286 pages. Dimensions: 8.5in. x 5.5in. x 0.6in. Once you start reading Bones to Pick, you wont be able to put it down. Between the four-legged farmyard shenanigans, the two men vying for Brie Hookers favor, the formidable task of proving her aunts innocence, plus the villains attempts to end her life, this book is a thrill-a-minute read. Cindy Sample, National Bestselling Author of Dying for a Donut Living on a farm with four hundred goats and a cantankerous carnivore isnt among vegan chef Brie Hookers list of lifetime ambitions. But she cant walk away from her Aunt Eva, who needs help operating her dairy. Once she calls her aunts goat farm home, grisly discoveries offer ample inducements for Brie to employ her entire vocabulary of cheese-and-meat curses. The troubles begin when the farms pot-bellied pig unearths the skull of Evas husband, who disappeared years back. The sheriff, kin to the deceased, sets out to pin the murder on Eva. He doesnt reckon on Bries resolve to prove her aunts innocence. Death threats, ruinous pedicures, psychic shenanigans, and biker bar fisticuffs wont stop Brie from unmasking the killer, even when romantic befuddlement throws her a curve. Bones to Pick grabbed me at chapter one and refused to let go until the very last page. I want to spend more time hanging out with Brie Hooker and all her quirky family and friends. Linda Lovely offers up a charming setting thats so real you can almost smell the hay, a story thats laugh-out-loud funny, and a mystery that will keep you up past your bedtime. Annette Dashofy, USA Today Bestselling Author of Uneasy Prey How vegan Brie Hooker balances cheese loving carnivores, more than one romantic interest, and murder in Linda Lovelys Bones to Pick is a...
