Seward House, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 228 x 153 mm. Language: English Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Former Marine, Charlie Woods, survived three tours in Afghanistan without a scar. His luck isn't as good after he gets back home to Greensboro, Georgia. Working as a part-time limo driver, Charlie accepts an unusual five-night loop from Atlanta to Key West and back. His wealthy passenger, eighty-plus Vivien Granville, refuses to fly anymore, but her youngest son has hanged himself in Key West and is being buried there. On the road, mutual comfort between Charlie and Mrs. Granville progresses to a devil's bargain. Charlie is desperate for money. His hobbled wife, Desiree, has spent them into a fool's race with the sheriff, and they're only days from losing their house, the single-wide trailer where his late grandmother raised him. Vivien needs a champion. She suspects her five surviving children are plotting to pack her off to a nursing home, a nightmare end for a woman with forty-six countries stamped on her passport. Heading home from the bizarre funeral with a broken nose - compliments of Vivien's eldest son - Charlie sees no option but to accept her job offer: a prepaid trial run for him and Desiree as live-in help at Vivien's mansion. The cash infusion saves his home, but at a cost he could never have seen coming.
