Immediately after the fire, Chicago encouraged inhabitants and architects to build over the ruins, spurring creative architecture with elaborate designs, and architects descended upon the city for the opportunity to rebuild the area. Over the next few decades, Chicago had been rebuilt with the country s most modern architecture and monuments, and the Windy City s skyscrapers reached over 20 stories by the early 20th century, but it wouldn t take long for the city to turn its early skyscrapers into things of the past. Burnham s 22 story high Masonic Temple Building, once the tallest building in the world, was demolished in favor of buildings that were twice as tall. Though it s technically named the Willis Tower today, Chicago s landmark is still best known as the Sears Tower, and Sears got a lot of bang for its buck. The Sears Tower only took two years to build at a cost of about $150 million, and it is still the second tallest building in America, a fact Chicagoans sharply debate after the Sears Tower was judged to be shorter than New York City s new Freedom Tower. In 1969, Sears wanted to create a large office space for its employees in the city, and they commissioned the firm Skidmore, Owings Merrill to design and build the structure. The firm conceived of the now famous design, in which the first 50 stories of the structure...
