Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from A List of Desirable Farms and Summer Homes in Vermont No excuse or apology is considered necessary for issuing this little book on the Summer Homes and Farms of Vermont. It is done simply to place before visitors to the State, in search of a home or a place in which to spend the summer months, information which is constantly being asked for by letter, and which it is impossible to give by correspondence. In the List of Summer Homes will be found the names of all who cared to have their business appear here, and includes nearly all of the principal resorts. Many Hotels take visitors for a few days at a time, and did not wish to solicit this travel. A large number of the Farm Homes have reported that they had engaged all they could accommodate, and some have made no reply to the invitation to place their names on our list. About one-half of the Hotels and Homes that will entertain summer travel this season appear in the accompanying list. The farms described are those that are at present without occupants for the house. These farms are all used by the owners, but have no present tenant. The list includes nearly all of this class of property that is for sale in the State at the present time. Many of these cheap farms will be found desirable by persons wishing to secure a permanent home in the country for the summer. In the past four years Vermont's supply of unoccupied farms has been reduced about one-half in number and there is less anxiety to sell farms than in the past....
