A PREHISTORIC ADVENTURE!After sleeping for what felt like just a few seconds, Collin was awoken to something wet rubbing up against his face. He opened his eyes, and standing before him was a giant, smiling Brontosaurus. Before Collin could move, the Brontosaurus licked his face again.Collin jumped up and ran behind a giant rock to hide. He stayed behind the rock and tried not to breathe loudly, but, the fear he was feeling had his heart racing and all he could do was breathe loudly.Collin jumped up and started running, as fast as he could, until he reached a pond. He was so tired from running that he dropped down to his knees. He crawled over to the edge of the pond to get a drink, but, paused when he looked at the water.The reflection staring back at him in the water wasn't what he was used to seeing, instead of his normal face he saw a dirty, hairy caveman with his face attached.Grab your crayons and join Collin on a prehistoric Color-With-Me Adventure!.
