Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Catalogue of the Important Historical Collection of Coins and Medals Made by Gerald E. Hart, Esq. Mr. Gerald B. Hart has been to well known as Numismatist and historical Scholar that it seems almost superfluous to extol the Collection formed At his hands, yet one cannot help being struck with its singular appropriateness to the purpose for which it was gathered, viz: historical study. Hardly a piece in the series of Ancient Coin* can be cast aside as uninteresting or irrelevant to some event of the distant part. while the modern pieces are particularly suggestive of a select Cabinet of valuable and rare specimens of historical importance and interest. Reverting to the Catalogue, the attention of Collectors is called to the number of Gold Coins of value scattered throughout its pages. Greek Staters, gold Daries. Roman Aurei and Byzantine Solid). Medieval and Modern Coin of England. Scotland. France and other countries, are there in number, and in a condition which can scarcely be surpassed. These must prove one of the chief attractions of the sale, for fine Ancient and Modern Gold Coins have lately very much increased in the esteem of collectors, and specimens of this quality are always in great demand. Nearly all the Greek Silver are choice specimens, generally purchased at the best New York Coin Sales, at which Mr. Hart has for many years been a generous bidder, for anything really illustrious; the drachm of Syracuse, signed by the great Greek Master Bvacnetns. and many of the Coins of these series are worthy to figure in the best Cabinets; the Oxford Crown is one of the great rarities of the English Coinage,...
