Some seek academic excellence or sports popularity. Others seek release or comfort through drugs, social connections (personal or Internet), or even suicide. Where should you be looking? Author Martha A. Harper s Does He Hear? (Life Devotions for Youth from Psalm 139) provides guidance and insight into the creator who hears your cries of concern. The devotions ask personal questions that involve honesty, respect, and obedience. Drawing from the Bible, these devotions respond to questions about difficulties you face every day. They encourage you to reach out to the scripture and trust God. He is the one with the answers and is listening, waiting for you to approach him. Does He Hear? enlightens you of God s love, encourages you to see him in your daily life, and challenges you to reach into a deeper personal relationship with him. -Martha s heart to encourage youth in their walk with the Lord is evidenced in Does He Hear? I pray God will use this book to bring young people to faith, nurturing those who know him already.- --Pam Rosner, Home schooled six years, teaching in public school twenty-two years -The questions are very thought-provoking for youth. The interactive sections continue the focus on the readers, encouraging them to seek God s direction. As adults, this book reminds us of God s awesome love for his children.- --Johnny Patricia Paxton have nine grandchildren and are members of Glen Baptist Church.
