Xulon Press, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .For My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways My ways, declares the LORD Isaiah 55:8 In the cold, sterile room at the hospital, where we were quickly ushered the night of July 11, 2008, the piercing words of the Physician s Assistant sliced through the very core of my being: We did everything we could.so very sorry.take you in to see him.toxicology report.was drinking.traveling at high rate of speed on the motorcycle.lost control. Oh, Father God, please let this be a dream. Please wake me up so I can walk down the hall, into Dane s room, and find him sleeping peacefully. I don t like this dream, Lord. I wasn t dreaming. My first-born grandson was lying on a bed in that hospital. No doctor would be able to bring him back to us. In the days and months following Dane s death, I would come to realize the generosity of a God who sends comfort to one of His hurting children. I would learn He had hand-picked a man and his wife to be by Dane s side as he lay wounded and dying. I would marvel as He sent dragonflies as a sign that Dane was with Him and all was well. Bruce and Mary, co-authors of this book, were the strangers who stopped and knelt at Dane s side. Each has heart-wrenching and heart-warming stories as to what God has done in their lives, before and after July 11, 2008. More than anything, this book is about a loving God who asks us to believe Him when He whispers to us that all is well when our grieving heart belies that truth.
