

The Apple Core - Part 1: The Core (Paperback)

By Martin P Rouse

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. The Apple Core is a novel about relationships, and this, Part 1, The Core is where it begins (though it stands as a short story on its own). Self-styled hippy Jenny Trent escapes her loneliness when she meets and consolidates her relationship with fellow art student Michael Galloway. They have a small company of College friends, with whom they socialize and entertain. It is set in South London at an Art School by the name of Shortlands , at the turn of the sixties and seventies (decades). Unsure how attracted to him she is at first, she soon realizes a need and yearning that brings them together and plants the seeds of a flourishing and meaningful adherent connection. It s set in a time when things were opening to new possibilities, with optimism; though where young people were critical of injustices, war and old prejudices and status. Openness, directness, belonging and understanding, plant them in their life-bound growth that comes from a discarded apple core. There is a rapid advance of events and an expanded dimension, which demonstrates the...
