Forgotten Books, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Excerpt from Surgical Diagnosis: A Lecture Delivered to the Medical Students of the Melbourne Hospital, at the Inauguration of the Second Session, 1877 Of our Hospital, as a school of practical medicine and surgery, we ought to feel justly proud. There are only three hospitals in London that make up more beds than we do. The hospitals of King s University College, Middlesex, and charing-cross are smaller than ours. I therefore congratulate you on having in this a comparatively new country so fine a school for the practical study of medicine and surgery. The regular attendance on lectures at the Univer sity, as well as the diligent perusal of medical and surgical literature, have their advantages during the curriculum of professional study, but no prelections, no book-knowledge can compete with the information to be obtained at the bedside of the sick in this Hospital. It is here you will be called upon to study from the life, the symptoms which bespeak and accompany the disease or accident. It is here you will receive practical instruction in the preliminaries. And after-treatment of Operations, the principles and practice of bandaging, the mechanical treatment of fractures, and the application of surgical apparatus generally.
