THE NOON BELL IN HUNGARY AND THE WORLD - A DÉLI HARANGSZÓ;

Zrínyi Budapest, 2011. Condition: New. new, ships from London next day Regularly and naturally, events of bygone centuries vanish into the mist of the past. Some of them, however, are so formative and decisive that posterity recalls them readily. In most Christian churches, one of these events is recalled by the ringing of the bell each day at noon, and although many people know that the advance of the conquering Ottoman army was successfully halted at the castle of Nandorfehervar/Belgrade...
