That leaves some ten evenings of your class time for other exercises. Occasionally, therefore, let an evening in the junior class be occupied by story-telling, recitations and readings. The teacher may select a special night to entertain his class on which occasion some of the time may be spent in similar exercises, thus making a very pleasant social evening for the boys. At conjoint meetings and in preliminary exercises the boys who can tell a good story, recite well, or give a good reading may be called upon to help in the program. The purpose of these exercises is to create interest in Mutual work, to gain information, and to develop power in the boy to express his thoughts, feelings, lines and words before the public. Stories, recitations, and readings should be uplifting in character, tending to goodness in thought and action,...
