Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The focus of this book is on mediation, a third party intervention role that can be undertaken by supervisors, managers, human resource professionals, marriage and family therapists, teachers, mediators, peace keepers, and parents. The authors make a strong case for the central role of empathy in promoting a successful mediation, especially when ongoing relationships between the parties are at stake. This book provides a thoughtful study of the important role of empathy in mediation through the development of a theoretical model to explain the effectiveness of Nonviolent Communication(TM) (NVC) mediation. While one of the aims of this book is providing a welcome beginning theoretical basis for the use of empathy in the mediation process, there is much crossover into counseling, parenting and other arenas that involve conflict in relationship. It provides support and clarity for those seeking to understand and adopt the practice of empathy either personally or professionally. Carolyn N. Altrock, MCE, LCSW This book provides a framework for understanding why mediation works when it works and therefore points the way to how mediation can be made to work more reliably. By highlighting the role of empathy-from the mediator and between the parties-in supporting many of the conditions for successful mediation, the authors...
