Title: Laurie's Sailing Directory for the Ethiopic or Southern Atlantic Ocean . . . composed and arranged . . . by J. Purdy. Fourth edition, revised and corrected by A. G. Findlay. Publisher: British Library, Historical Print Editions The British Library is the national library of the United Kingdom. It is one of the world's largest research libraries holding over 150 million items in all known languages and formats: books, journals, newspapers, sound recordings, patents, maps, stamps, prints and much more. Its collections include around 14 million books, along with substantial additional collections of manuscripts and historical items dating back as far as 300 BC. The GEOLOGY collection includes books from the British Library digitised by Microsoft. The works in this collection contain a number of maps, charts, and tables from the 16th to the 19th centuries documenting geological features of the natural world. Also contained are textbooks and early scientific studies that catalogue and chronicle the human stance toward water and land use. Readers will further enjoy early historical maps of rivers and shorelines demonstrating the artistry of journeymen,...

Reviews

Here is the finest publication we have read right up until now. It is actually written in easy words instead of difficult to understand. It has been written in a remarkably easy way in fact it is only right after I finished reading this book in which basically changed me, modify the way I really believe.

-- Prof. Vanessa Smitham V

Completely among the finest books I have actually read through. It is probably the most remarkable book we have studied. I discovered this book from my dad and I suggested this book to learn.
