The guidance provides resources for grantees to incorporate children into their planning and purchase of equipment and supplies, and provides training to a broad range of child-specific providers, and exercise capabilities relating to children. In addition, FEMA's Children's Working Group collaborated with the American Red Cross, the Commission, and other pediatric experts to develop a shelter supply list which identifies the basic items necessary to sustain infants and toddlers in mass care shelters and emergency congregate care environments. That list has been integrated into numerous planning and guidance documents. FEMA signed an agreement with Health and Human Services to provide for the rapid deployment of case managers when requested by the State during a Presidentially declared disaster. FEMA's Public Assistance Division has clarified certain child care services and facilities are eligible for reimbursement under the Stafford Act and a Fact Sheet has been disseminated to the Regions. Emergency Communications ODIC and FEMA's Integrated...
