HarperCollins Publishers, United Kingdom, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. The new laugh-out-loud novel from Maddie Please, author of The Summer of Second Chances. Billie Summers has always been quite content in her little cottage in the Cotswolds. Sure, half the house hasn't been renovated, but what's the point when it's only her? Working part-time at her uncle's bookshop and planning writer retreats with her best friend allows her to pay the bills. What more could anyone want? That is until Oliver Forest, the bad boy of the book world, turns up to one of her retreats and points out that Billie hasn't done anything very adventurous. Couple that with her best friend falling head over heels and beginning to drift away from their Friday night wine and dinner plans, Billie is starting to wonder if it isn't time she took control of her life. So she starts a list: get fitted (properly) for a bra, fix up rest of house, find a `career and well, get a tattoo . Her life might just get the makeover it needs, too bad irritating and far-too-attractive for his own good, Oliver keeps showing up . Because sometimes you need an adventure!.
