Full Court Press Incorporated. Paperback. Condition: New. 348 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 1.0in. Was the official verdict that Lee Harvey Oswald was the Lone Crazy Gunman announced by highly-placed government officials within days of the JFK assassination - long before the Warren Commission had held its first meeting Did official U. S. Government investigations document unequivocal proof that -prior to Dallas- there was at least one earlier plot to assassinate JFK from a high building during one of his habitual open motorcade rides; and that the plans included a subsequent rub-out of the assassin Did the likes of mob bosses like Carlos Marcello and Santos Trafficante, labor boss Jimmy Hoffa and certain elements of the anti-Castro Cuban movement have a number of common interests, one of which was to assassinate President Kennedy Did life-long mobster Jack Ruby shoot Oswald out of patriotism and sorrow for Jackie as he claimed, or was that an excuse spoon-fed to him by his lawyer Was Oswald the dull-witted, crazed loner he has been painted to be, or did he have an IQ that placed him in the upper range of bright normal intelligence and documented connections to a number of very interesting people Are there any documented relationships of Oswald with actual pro-Castro or pro-Communist people; or, to the contrary, did Oswald have unequivocally documented ties to anti-Castro Cubans and organized crime figures, both groups of which had working relationships with U. S. Intelligence operatives The answer to these and numerous other questions actually exists in official U. S. Government documents including the testimony and exhibits of the Warren Report they had the answers to the above questions in their own documents but omitted any reference to that material in their Report. Do you agree that the public is entitled to know ALL...
