

Writing as a Small Business

By Nash Black

If Publishing, United States, 2008. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 203 x 122 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.In days of yore, painters created portraits, writers penned stories, musicians composed and no one ever worried about being audited. In today's world, artists need to have business savvy. Yet so many find themselves long on creativity but short on tax knowledge, and organizational and marketing skills. Writing as a Small Business is the perfect guide to help artists navigate through the world of creative self-employment. In Writing as a Small Business, you'll learn: *Why it is to your advantage that the IRS considers you a small business *How to fill out tax forms *How to engage in recordkeeping that can make you audit-proof *How to handle advances on royalties, grants and gratuities *Why even rejection letters are valuable *How to protect your work and your computer from bugs *How to prepare for the future and protect your family And in a section specially for writers Nash Black takes you into the world of publishing, where you learn what it takes to merchandise and sell your work. Writing as a Small Business the creative people...
