

Sixth and Congress (Paperback)

By Dr Don Rankin

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Sixth and Congress is about justice. But if you are looking for love, laughter, tears, larger than life characters, high powered action and everything else you want in a legendary western, you will find all those as well. There are lawmen, cowboys, cattle-drives and rustlers, train robbers and gunfights galore. Experience war, floods, pestilence, political battles and religious euphoria. Sixth and Congress also has presidents involved in clandestine operations, secret agents, rousing fistfights, assassins, secret codes, soldiers and much much more. But on the softer side, it shows family love and family ties, friendship, brotherhood, respect, honor and a deep regard for age, race and religion. A royal hero from a foreign land makes a meaningful contribution and you can even find a touch of the paranormal as well. Sixth and Congress is not only about the characters trying to hang on to life and make a good showing for themselves, but to make the most of it for those that follow. This well researched story is based on real people that lived during this time and events that took...
