Academic Publishing International Ltd, United Kingdom, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Over the last few decades we have witnessed a fundamental change in government activity driven by Information and Communication Technologies, storage technologies, the Internet, Web 2.0 3.0 technologies and mobile technologies. These technologies are helping governments transform and innovate across all areas of government activity. These proceeding provide a snapshot of current e-Government case studies, re-search, analysis and activity around the World representing cutting edge innovation and transformation of government service provision, government transparency, engagement with citizens and business, and the running of government itself. As such these proceeds will provide a valuable contribution to researchers and practitioners interested in e-Government activity. These proceedings represent the work of researchers participating in the 15th European Conference on e-Government - ECEG 2015 which is being hosted this year by The University of Portsmouth, UK on the 18-19 June 2015. ECEG is a recognised event on the European research conferences calendar and provides a valuable platform for individuals to present their research findings, display their work in progress and discuss conceptual advances in the area of e-Government. It provides an important opportunity...
