Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from A Short History of Education For some time experiments have been made in the Normal School with the object of discovering a course of Educational History suited to the needs of students attending a session of eighteen weeks, and providing, beside, such material as may be readily adapted to the still shorter Third Class session of eleven weeks. The course discovered makes no pretense at originality of thought. The only merit it has lies in the fact that it has grown out of the needs of the class; has been well tested by several hundred students; and has undergone such revision as was deemed profitable. This book attempts to place in small compass the long and involved story of the evolution of the various philosophies of education which have been substantial enough to endure the test of time. Few teachers have the time or the mental training necessary to cover the vast field thoroughly, yet all should wish to know something of the more important contentions which have engaged the thoughts of men and women...
