Wilkinson Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Deadliest Warbirds: 100 Years, Sopwiths to Strike Fighters, Kim Lockwood, Warbirds. Weapons that fly. They home in on their targets in the air, on the ground or at sea, fire their guns and rockets or drop their bombs, and disappear. They shoot down other warbirds. They sink ships. They destroy cities. And they kill people. They hold a grim fascination. In the 100 years since the first military aircraft were developed and flown, they and their successors have cost humankind billions of dollars and millions of lives. They have become so ingenious that they seem to defy gravity and radar and their bombs can shatter buildings without harming people. Or so they say Worlds Deadliest Warbirds is a full colour, comprehensive tribute to the greatest warbirds to ever take to the skies.
