Dr. Sprague wondered why Steve was so closely involved with her with his feelings for her being so deep. It worried him since in his weekly meetings with Peter, he was being told that she was waiting for him. He marvelled how such a quiet well mannered girl of refined tastes had managed to take the Chinese Stud and the White Stallion both and tamed them. That was the biggest puzzle, and they were tamed. He wondered what the future held for all three of them. The Songbird Volume Two Lying in the darkness Peter thought about Jeneil's idea of them missing each other in life. He touched his stomach and his network of scars. If that was true then they were worth it. He turned onto his side and was soon asleep. Peter woke up and turned over. Reaching out for Jeneil, he lifted his head, surprised that she wasn't next to him. He looked at the clock. Six, he said, I have an hour to get to work. Standing up...
