What a nice little boy you are, she says, going up to Adolphe and reverting to the infantile, wheedling language of the honeymoon. How so? Why, to let your Liline ride a horse. NOTE.--During the honeymoon, some very youthful wives use languages which Aristotle classified and defined in very ancient times.- See his Pedagogy.--Thus their conversation abounds in youyous and lalas and nanas, like mothers and nurses talking to young children. That is one of the secret reasons, discussed and asserted in bulky quartos by the Germans, which led the Cabiri, the creators of Greek mythology, to represent Love as a child. There are other reasons which women know, the principal one, according to them, being that love in man is always diminutive. Where did you get that idea, my love? under your nightcap? What? Caroline stands as if rooted to the spot; she...
