The Map Maker: An Illustrated Short Story About How Each of Us Sees the World Differently and Why Objectivity is Just an Illusion

By Brandon Royal

Maven Publishing, Canada, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Can We Really See the World in a Fair and Unbiased Way? The Map Maker is the story of a young adventurer who travels to Paradise Island with the aid of a magical map. Here, he begins his own knowledge quest to better understand why people see the world just the way they do. Arguably, one of the most important traits any person can possess is the ability to see things from another person s point of view. This story shows how different people, with differing viewpoints, can each believe that his or her own viewpoint is reasonable and accurate. It offers an explanation as to why it is difficult, if not impossible, to judge events objectively. Using simple prose, this work introduces and explores the meaning behind the phrase the subjectivity of truth and the relativity of reality. A product of inspirational and literary fiction, The Map Maker will hold special appeal for readers interested in philosophy in fiction. This short story will also introduce readers to the story line of the movie Rashomon. This Oscar-winning, Japanese...
