

The Art of Tarot: Your Complete Guide to the Tarot Cards and Their Meanings. (Mixed media product)

By Liz Dean

Ryland, Peters Small Ltd, United Kingdom, 2014. Mixed media product. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. The Tarot has a 500-year history and most Western and Eastern cultures have created their own unique decks. The cards in this set, exquisitely illustrated by artist Emma Garner, express the rich imagery and symbols of the Tarot in a way that is both stunning and immediate. There are eight different card arrangements to try laying out, plus essential information on timing a reading; this is often omitted in Tarot instruction guides, even though the first question asked of a Tarot reader is often `When will these events happen? . Particular attention is also paid to interpreting the `people or Court cards of the Minor Arcana, as these are often stumbling blocks for the new reader. Armed with the knowledge in this book, the reader will be able to make sense of a complete reading for him or herself or a friend, and use these inspiring cards to solve problems, identify opportunities, and ultimately divine the future.
