Our Father God, the Great Strategist, has a mission statement, a vision statement and a value statement written for each of our lives based on the purposes and plans that He created us with. Like an entrepreneurial father who wants his children to get involved in the Family Business, likewise, our Heavenly Father desires for us to get involved in His business. Our involvement allows us to build a healthy relationship with Him (as well as the people in our world), identifying our purposes in life and following His plans and structure for our lives and work. This writing shares life and ministry principles regarding these areas (purpose, order, and relationships) as we encourage the reader to develop a relationship with, learn of and get to know our Heavenly Father.
