From USA TODAY bestselling author, DL Snow, comes a tale of love that transcends time. After giving up fame, Joss Jones wants a normal life. Maybe she'll find it in Bandit Creek. Or... maybe not. From the moment she moves into the old mansion she inherited, she's stalked by a ghost who torments her before dragging her back in time to Bandit Creek, 1899. Has she gone crazy or is this old mining town, full of saloons, gambling, whoring and fortune seekers her new reality? It feels real enough as does the ghost who brought her here. His name is Morgan Hawes and he is very much alive. Is Morgan the key to Joss finding her way home or is Joss stuck for the rest of her life as the Siren of Bandit Creek? This is a 40,000 word (170 page) novella. Sirens Song is a mystery wrapped in a heart-wrenching love story that spans all different times. I laughed, I cried, I gasped, and I raged. Like Joss was pulled into the lake by Kyle, I was pulled into this story by D. L. Snow. I'm glad I didn't pass this one up. Zodiac Book Reviews D. L. Snow's writing makes my heart sing. . .
