Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Reprint of Report of the Mission at Sagada and Bagnen, Lepanto-Bontoo, 1907: Prefaced by an Account of the Typhoon Disaster of October, 1908 To the Communicants of the Church: - The story of disaster which follows these prefatory words of mine drives home a responsibility which belongs to all of us. I publish Mr. Staunton s open letter to me in its entirety. It was written when the consciousness of the extent of our loss was vividly before him, loss which he deplored for the Church s sake. The prompt and sympathetic response by the Board to our representation by cable of the estimated amount of damage (85,000) was only in accord with what I expected, because from the day of my election until now I have never received aught but considerateness and a whole hearted desire to help from the members of the Board, individually and collectively. But the Board is able to underwrite us for the sum necessary for repairs only because it believes that you will reimburse the treasury. The Board, as Mr. Staunton rightly says, is only the disbursing agency of the Church and is dependent upon the generosity of the Church for its resources. There are fundamental principles embodied in Mr. Staunton s letter which I heartily endorse, and which I would urge upon the attention of the Church: - 1. In the new situations which from time to time must arise in the Mission field, time worn methods are inadequate-Hitherto domiciles have been available in most countries where our Church has established Missions. In the Igorot country, however, not only are there no habitable dwellings but the cost of...
