Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Democrats want to keep paying out money even if we have no money. We can print more, they seem to think. The Republican s are cutting entire programs, many of which the average citizen is dependent on, while approving the same old contracts to select government contractors. No one is saying, hey lets cut this 20 across the board. Just cut entirely, or don t cut at all. Lets cut that position, but lets create a toll road system in North Carolina without the people voting on it to hire road workers. Who cares if it might impact small business owners. Small business owners pay the taxes and create the revenues, but who cares. We can print more money, they ignorantly think. We need some Independent Candidates in office, who will do what is right for all America, instead of what is selfishly right for those in charge. And we as American citizens need to step up and help out. We need to work harder and smarter than ever. We need to take care of our families. The word family is being construed to mean whatever exists (just watch modern television). A mother, a father, and children rarely live together. Communities are full of transient people; in fact most people who live in a community do not even know the names of their next door neighbor. Senior leaders of government and business are constantly in the paper for unethical behavior, which includes a lot of lewd conduct including child molestation, adultery, stealing, and embezzlement: but never for just lying. No one ever accuses a senior executive of simply lying anymore, although they do it more and more..
