Dog Ear Publishing, United States, 2011. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Terra was a normal Continuum school girl until her four parents decided that an interstellar experience would do her good. Terra finds herself on Orion Station next to an ancient space artifact, the Geodite. When the Geodite comes alive again after centuries of dormancy, Terra's family must survive what comes through from the other side. Long ago the Geodite had gone dark, trapping many Continuum citizens on the planet Terra. Adonis, Athena and others struggle to survive the aftermath while making their way to one of the last Continuum out posts, Egypt, all the while trying to avoid the genetically engineered barbarian Hetero race that had been created by the Continuum in a failed experiment. With the barbarian Hetero population spreading across the planet like a plague, how will the Continuum population survive? What will happen to the Hetero population when the Gay and Lesbian Continuum returns to Terra? Mr. McWilson was born in Mississippi and grew up as a U.S. Army dependent and later served in the U.S. Navy. As a child he traveled extensively and even lived with his grandparents for a couple of years on a non-integrated farm prison called Camp B in Mississippi's Parchment prison system. He survived the AIDS scourge, watching and trying to help almost everyone he knew, live their last days. Alone, he wandered for a couple of years traveling across country. Mr. McWilson finally settled for a while in Chico California, graduating with honors from Butte College, earning his undergraduate degree from California State University, Chico, and entered California Western School of Law as an academic scholar. These days, Mr. McWilson is a happily married lawyer...
