Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Department of Homeland Security (DHS) has developed a comprehensive strategy to combat human trafficking through coordination with domestic and foreign non-governmental organizations (NGOs) and law enforcement agencies in order to identify and provide services to trafficking victims and coordinate investigations. DHS human trafficking strategy is focused on providing a commitment to victim-centered investigations and incorporates a multidisciplinary response. The Department of Homeland Security (DHS) launched the Blue Campaign in February of 2010 - a DHS-wide initiative to combat human trafficking through enhanced public awareness, victim assistance programs, and law enforcement training and initiatives. The Blue Campaign encompasses a wide range of anti-trafficking programs designed to engage the American and global public, the Department's federal, state, local and tribal law enforcement partners, nonprofit and nongovernmental organizations, and governments around the world.² DHS Blue Campaign strategy is organized around the three Ps of the Trafficking Victims Protection Act of 20003: Prevention, Protection, and Prosecution. DHS has added a fourth P called Partnership in order to assist the department in operationalizing its strategy, focused on the Trafficking Victim s...
