De nouveaux memoires d Horace Walpole, publies a Londres, doivent fixer l attention, surtout si on les rapproche de quelques publications recentes qui ont trait a la meme epoque et qui renferment de curieux documents. La vie d Horace Walpole, vie oisive, que tout le monde connait, ne merite guere d etre rappelee. Il naquit en 1712, du mariage contracte entre un gentilhomme campagnard, membre du parlement, et la petite-fille d un lord-maire nomme Shorter; eleve a Eton pendant que son pere montait peniblement les degres de la vie politique, il fit son tour d Europe comme tout bon gentilhomme anglais, et revint assister comme spectateur ironique et attentif, sans vouloir jamais s y meler activement, au drame de la chambre des communes. Cette attitude d observation dura jusqu a sa mort, survenue en 1787, et lui obit une existence calme et detestee. Personne n a ete plus decrie de son vivant, plus vivement attaque par ses ennemis, plus mal defendu par ses amis: on ne pouvait souffrir son impertinence froide et son ricanement perpetuel.
