Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Excerpt from The Modern Trend in Soteriology The term salvation is the most significant in the language of religion. For the religion of every man is just his way of seeking salvation. If theology is the religious man s theory of things in general and at the same time his way of vindicating his loyalty to the religious life, then soteriology, or the theory of salvation, is an attempt to vindicate the motive of the religious life by an intellectual construction of it. It is the effort of intelligence to establish the worth of the specifically religious experience of an ascension from a worse state to a better by showing that it has a normal place in the Whole of our human experience and, in the end, an ordered place in the Whole universe. The experience of moral betterment is the root of all soteriology, and soteriology is the point of View central to all theology. A theological system is simply organized soteriology. It seems, then, that a new soteriology is to be looked for when a fresh advance in the religious life has become a subject of conscious reflection. The new experiences into which men come in those spiritual movements that we call a religious revival or reform always seek for themselves an intellectual vestment in Which the subject of them may come to know their worth and meaning and interpret them to others. A history of soteriology becomes a record of progress in the better life, that is, when each of the new formations of soteriology is a genuine product of its time. To inquire for the present trend in soteriology is first of all to ask for the present...
