As the 17-year old daughter of Illinois senator Randall Ross and socialite Jillian Ross, Sydney was born with perfect teeth and a killer trust-fund. Everything about her life is idyllic the life of a princess. The Ross are richer than God and twice as beautiful. The picture-perfect All-American Family. Except that it is all a lie. Sydneys life spins into a free-fall and survival itself begins to look questionable as she struggles through the sordid twists that she has been dealt. After the shocking climax, Sydney is left with one seething question: Who in the world can she trust when no one is who they seem to be This item ships from multiple locations.
