Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Extract From the Tenth Annual Report of the State Board of Charities of the State of New York, Relating to the Causes of Pauperism The poor - houses and almshouses contained no proper system of records of the inmates. A register of the name, sex, age, etc., was kept in most of these institutions, but no record as to the condition of the persons before becoming dependent, or as to their ancestors, or near relatives, was maintained in any of them. This fact greatly embarrassed the work and rendered its progress slow and tedious. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
