My personal acquaintance with your State is limited, but I have long been familiar with the reputation of her common schools, her State University, and her teachers. Cultivated men all over the country know full well that there is much in her educational history that is instructive and inspiring. No chapter in the admirable volume which your distinguished jurist, Judge Cooley, has contributed to The Commonwealth Series is likely to be read with more interest and admiration than the one entitled, The State provides for universal education. At least such has been my own experience. Allow me, therefore, Mr. President, to congratulate you and the Michigan teachers gathered in this...
