Language: English Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The Relationship Between the Library and the Public Schools: Reprints of Papers and Addresses This volume is the first of a projected series on the Classics of American Librarianship. The title is intended to show clearly the scope and purpose of the work. A classic is not necessarily up to date. It is not necessarily interesting reading at the present day. It is something that has marked a stage of progress; that has affected and altered modes of thought and methods of work, or has reflected in some way such alterations, thereby becoming of permanent value. The papers gathered in these volumes will be in many cases out of date, but each, it is believed, has played its part, either in making the modern library what it is or in chronicling the changes that have brought it about, at the very time when those changes were made. It is part of the plan of the work to give the exact words of the various writers quoted. Extraneous matter has been omitted here and there, but such omissions are always indicated and nothing is given in paraphrase or abstract Brief explanatory matter has been inserted where it appeared to be necessary. Everything here reprinted is accessible somewhere to somebody, but there is a good reason for making it all accessible in one collected form to everybody. The classics of our profession are little read, for the reason that they are scattered. It may not be presumptuous to hope that an attempt, however inadequate, to collect and classify them, will meet the approval of librarians. About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic...
