

Weapons of Mass Survival: Musings of a Marooned Extraterrestrial

By Don Lebell PhD

CreateSpace Independent Publishing Platform. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 300 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.7in. When an extraterrestrial from an advanced planet arrives on Earth, he discovers a world with uncontrolled flows of wealth and communication, yet also a world containing weapons of mass destruction. Using pivotal insight, this alien narrator describes how our world must change if its ever to survive. Calling for a grand enterprise of change regarding how freedom, privacy, class warfare, and socioeconomics can be redefined and promulgated, the illuminating musings of Weapons of Mass Survival will point us toward stability and harmony. Weapons of Mass Survival is a serious portrayal of the existential challenges our world faces as viewed by an insightful and concerned extraterrestrial. With national borders becoming more and more porous, respect and control of leaders becoming more diluted by the day, and technology suddenly offering everyone powerful weapons, information, and unprecedented access to wealth and social networks, a metamorphosis of socioeconomic, political, and cultural aspects is becoming increasingly inevitable. With the world as we know it edging toward the brink of destruction, this enlightening book broaches these difficult challenges with viable and effective responses using enterprise development...
