DOWNLOAD

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Bob Coker set his sights on a radio career while still in high school, and with ambition, determination and confidence, made that dream a reality. Failing was not an option. From his first job in radio as KOMA s Money Man and then a disc jockey in Oklahoma City, to Bureau Chief at Mutual Broadcasting in Washington, D.C. and then on to ABC Radio News Network in New York City, Bob Coker has had a rich and exciting career in radio for over 50 years. This book contains funny and interesting stories, anecdotes and lessons from his life in radio: culminating in his rise to the news department at ABC Radio in New York City and meeting some of the top talent in the news business including Charles Arnot, Barbara Walters and Harry Reasoner.
