Gods Saviors Throughout History: the Many Faces of the Jesus Narrative (Paperback)

By Edited by Paul F Kisak

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. The study of Jesus Christ in comparative mythology is the examination of the narratives of the life of Jesus in the Christian gospels, traditions and theology, as it relates to Christian mythology and other religions. For over a century, various authors have drawn a number of parallels between the Christian views of Jesus and other religious or mythical domains. These include Greco-Roman mysteries, ancient Egyptian myths and more general analogies involving cross-cultural patterns of dying and rising gods in the context of the Christ myth theory. There are at least a dozen crucified self-proclaimed gods that have had apostles that record these gods as having experienced an immaculate conception, a virgin birth, had stars or signs marking their birth, were born on 25 December, performed miracles (many the same as Jesus), promised an afterlife, risen from the dead, and proclaimed many prophecies. The parallels are undeniable. Most all of them predate the Christian record by hundreds or thousands of years. Many of these self-proclaimed gods have better records that reflect their works and teachings than the Christian record. Examples include Zoroaster...
